THe Houſe of Commons, upon late Information received from their Armies in Ireland, have tenderly conſidered the great extremities they are in, with their conſtant reſolutions to proceed in that Work, notwithſtanding all difficulties; and thereupon, having now laid a certain foundation of credit for the incouragement of their Forces there, do Order, That it be publiſhed to morrow the 28. of Auguſt, 1644. in the ſeverall Churches in and about London, That the Adventurers do meet on Friday at Two of the clock in the afternoon at Grocers-Hall, where a Committee of the Houſe of Commons is Ordered to meet them, for the preſent raiſing of ſome proviſion on this foundation of Credit, for the relief of thoſe who ſtand ſo reſolutely for maintenance of the common Cauſe; And all the Miniſters in London, and within the Lines of Communication, are then to recommend the ſucceſs of this affair unto God in their prayers with Thankſgiving, for Gods great Bleſſing on their late endeavours; And to ſtir up the ſeverall Adventurers, not to fail of this meeting, as they tender the good of Ireland.

27. Auguſt. 1644.

ORdered that this Order be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and carefully diſperſed:
